WORSHIP: SUNDAYS AT 10 A.M.

At a special congregational meeting on May 26, 2019, members of United Presbyterian Church voted unanimously to call Brett Foote as Pastor. Brett will begin serving UPC on July 1, 2019.

On Sunday, June 2, Brett will be ordained to the Christian ministry at his home congregation in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. He and his wife Laura will be moving to Superior in June. Pastor Charlotte Frantz will continue to serve UPC through June 30.

The congregation extends its appreciation to the Pastoral Nominating Committee and especially Jim Willmore, Chair, for their work and persistence in the pastoral search.

From the Pastor...

Dear Friends,

In reflecting upon events in his own life, Paul mused about the workings of God's Holy Spirit and concluded, "We know that all things work together for good for those who love God. . . ." Those seem fitting words for my ministry among you the past-almost-two-years. I believe the Spirit brought us together so that my life, and, I hope, yours, has been enriched and made ready for the future.

Among your many gifts as a congregation, I saw and experienced these: a strong prayer and worship life, a deep sense of community responsibility, perseverance, and compassion for each other. I am excited for you that Brett has accepted your call. He brings energy, compassion, creativity and a global perspective. I believe he appreciates not only who you are as a congregation, but whom you will become.

Unlike many of us, most of his life experience has been shaped by the 21st century. This is a time of historic change. Phyllis Tickle, a keen observer of culture and spirituality, described this time as "a giant rummage sale." She used the word "re-tradition" to characterize what is happening—it is not that everything is up for grabs, but this is a time of re-examination, a time of sorting out the essential from the peripheral, an opportunity to use traditions in new ways.

Brett might well be the kind of leader the church (not just UPC but the wider church as well) needs at this time. I hope you will cherish him, be patient with the transitions he brings, give him honest feedback, ask questions in order to help promote understanding and growth, in short, be a good partner with him in crafting ministry that serves well into the future.

I look forward to hearing good things about life here at United. I will miss being a part of your activities and channels of care. If and when Brett invites me to some event, I will be happy to accept his invitation.

I will be with you through June 30 when I hand you over into his care. I will do so with every hope and prayer for him and for you and for all that you will do together.

In Christ's love, Pastor Charlotte Frantz

Pentecost Offering

This year we will dedicate our Pentecost offering on June 16. This offering is received throughout Presbyterian congregations and supports several important ministry to and with Young Adults. The portion sent to the national offices is used for Young Adult Volunteers, a program that places young adult volunteers in communities around the world where they are engaged in Christian service. Some of the funds are also used for children's education, especially children at risk. 40% of our offering will help underwrite the expenses of youth from our Presbytery who will attend this year's Triennium in July.
